THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY, TENTH YEAR.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, has reached its Twelfth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are of interest to the minds of students of the "Far East" and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting notes and original papers on the Arts, Sciences, Literature, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Nature, History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new department has been taken, and the Review now gives space on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be rendered more generally useful.

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of literature on China etc., and to give critiques embodying sketches of the most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to the Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office.

The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining knowledge on Chinese points.

The Correspondence column also affords further and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, Imperial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is additionally cultivated.

Regular contributors are Dr. Chalmers, E. B. Brockschneider, Hirth, and Hanco, P. L. Legge, and Messrs. Balfour, Watters, Stein, Phillips, Macleay, Groot, Janz, Sten, Faber, Kopsch, Parker, Playfair, Giles, and Pilon, all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject.

The Subscription is fixed at $6.50 per annum, postage included—payable in advance.

Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to; Address, "Manager, China Mail Office."

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and carefully edited Review."—Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.).

"The China Review  has an excellent table of contents."—Celestial Empire.

"The Publication always contains articles of interest to sojourners in the Far East, and the present issue will hold favourable places in the library of every student of Chinese literature and history."—Celestial Empire.

"This number contains several articles of interest and value."—North-China Herald.

"The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterizes this publication, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Meteorologists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Pringle, on 'The Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking'."—North-China Herald.

"The China Review is a most valuable work of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to 1880. 'Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa,' by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, touching much of it is second-hand. The Review, however, includes a most generous and appreciative review of 'The Divine Classic of Nan-Hua,' and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting."—North-China Herald.

"A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronize."—Chrysanthemum.

"The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr. Hirth, 'A Glean on the 'The Restaurant in China,' is a treat of a question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries."—Mr. E. H. Parker's 'Short Journeys in Szechuan' are continued, and a goodly number of these travels are given. Mr. F. E. Balfour contributes a paper of some length entitled 'The Emperor Cheng founder of the Chinese Empire,' which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history.

A few short notices, touching much of it is second-hand. The Review, however, includes a most generous and appreciative review of 'The Divine Classic of Nan-Hua,' and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting."—North-China Herald.
